LINES OF LEGACY

PROGRAMS & PARTNERSHIPS

Bring Black history into the conversation.

Interactive programs and books that invite people to explore Black history through art, storytelling, and creative reflection.

SCHOOLS / LIBRARIES / COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Three ways to work together

01 Book a Black History Coloring & Conversation Experience

A 60-minute facilitated session with storytelling, guided discussion, coloring, and reflection. Ages 8+; adaptable for families, teens, or adults. In person or virtual. Printed activity sheets included for up to 25 in-person participants; supplies coordinated with the host.

02 Order books for your group

Classroom sets, community activities, cultural programs, and organizational gifts. Group pricing and program-plus-book options quoted to your quantity, audience, and delivery needs.

03 Explore retail or wholesale

Stock Lines of Legacy: A Black History Coloring Book, featuring 25 illustrated scenes and captions. Retail and wholesale inquiries welcome; request current terms and ordering information.

EXPERIENCE YOU CAN BUILD ON

Past engagements include Detroit Public Library Main, Faxon Academy, Earhart Middle School, and Cranbrook Institute of Science. Formats have included library programming, school visits, and community events.

475 books sold in the first year | Launched September 2025

Led by Javonne Barrett

Founder, Lines of Legacy LLC • University of Michigan Ross graduate
Detroit-based; virtual programs and travel by arrangement.

LET'S PLAN YOUR PROGRAM OR GROUP ORDER

javonne.barrett@shoplinesoflegacy.com

shoplinesoflegacy.com/programs

View programs